

Please leave satellite radio be as viable as possible. The local stations do not have the same content as XM radio. I like the choices that XM and other stations offer. Please do not stifle satellite radio.